Lord Coe, Jimmy Tarbuck and Rod Marsh have all appeared with "The Cat" this summer.

-----00000000000000000000-----

*Versatility has been the name of the game for Bob these past three months. Aside from his usual excellent stand-ups he has written and delivered two comedy poems for the retiring CEO of Rolls Royce, JOHN RISHTON, and the new President of World Athletics, LORD COE

At the Variety Club Golfing Society's 50th Anniversary his interview with President JIMMY TARBUCK bought tears of both laughter and emotion and the next night he was doing the same with Cricket Australia's Chairman of Selectors, ROD MARSH.

*In Portugal his comedy auction at the Sir Bobby Robson Memorial Golf Classic raised no less than £58,000. "Not unexpectedly you excelled in all respects" - Roger Eastoe, Event Organiser - "You are a mainstay of the event" - Andrew Robson*

*After SPARKS Alan Brazil Golf Day he was at the ultra-politically-correct Kent Law Society Dinner - "Having been to more local Law Society dinners over the last couple of years and all over the country I can honestly say that this was amongst the very best and made so by your contribution which I think had everybody in stitches!" - Jonathan Smithers, President of the Law Society, England and Wales*

Then it was Wilson's School 400th Anniversary Dinner - "Thank you for entertaining us so well" Nathan Cole, Headmaster

At the Belfry he did the Stihl Golf Day - "Your material was hilarious, well-judged and fed from observations made on the evening. Great job with the auction as well" - Andy Taylor, Stihl

Then it was north to the Yorkshire CCC 364 Club Lunch - "Very many thanks for a wonderful speech at the 364 Lunch. Rave notices from the assembled throng". - Keith Moss, Chairman

That same evening he delivered a comedy poem for the Rolls Royce Director's Farewell Dinner for the CEO - "Thanks for all the thought and hard work that went into this. It will be hanging in my home" - John Rishton

Rave reviews were then accorded for his interview with JIMMY TARBUCK for the Variety Club Golfing Society 50th Anniversary at Wentworth - "You were so professional and made the evening" David Redfearn, Past Captain VCGS - "The cabaret was just perfect" - Calum Giles, VCGS

One night later and he was interviewing Cricket Australia's Chairman of Selectors, ROD MARSH at Canterbury - "My partner doesn't like cricket but she thought you were the real star!" - Brian Scovell, Daily Mail - "Bob, thank you for all your hard work to make this happen so well", Jamie Clifford, Kent CCC CEO

He then followed a Savills Customer Luncheon at Sevenoaks CC with the Martin Lawrence Trust Golf Day Dinner and Auction where he raised £22,000 - "Bob was brilliant" - Tricia Lawrence

Then he was delivering another comedy poem this time for the wife of Lord Seb Coe at a 50th Birthday Party - "Brilliant as ever" - Lady Coe

In the usually quiet month of August he was still at it with the annual Tom Maynard Trust Lunch in Cardiff - "Thanks to Bob who was brilliant" Matt Maynard and then - Phil de Frietas (below) Golf Day Dinner for Golden Golf. "Great Show, Cat!"
